HOW TO PLAY

Rules, Scoring, and Game Formats

The Core Objective

Your objective is to identify a specific, unambiguous biblical figure using three progressive clues. Clues progress from subtle historical or geographical details down to iconic, unmistakable biblical moments.

The Point System (No Timer Required)

- Clue 1 (3 Points): High-level historical, genealogical, or contextual hint. Guess correctly on Clue 1 to score 3 points.
- Clue 2 (2 Points): Key conversation, pivotal turning point, or unique circumstance. Guess correctly on Clue 2 to score 2 points.
- Clue 3 (1 Point): Unmistakable iconic detail, signature object, or famous miracle. Guess correctly on Clue 3 to score 1 point.
- Missed Guesses: One guess per clue per team. Incorrect guesses score zero for that clue, and the game moves to the next clue.

Three Flexible Game Modes

- 1. Competitive Team Mode (4+ Players): Divide into two teams. The Reader presents Clue 1 to Team A. If Team A guesses correctly, they bank 3 points. If they guess incorrectly, Team B has an opportunity to guess for 2 points, or hear Clue 2. Alternate readers each round.
- 2. Solo / Duet Challenge Mode (1-2 Players): Use an index card to cover Clues 2 and 3. Read Clue 1 and attempt to name the figure. Check your answer in the Annotated Key. Challenge yourself to reach 150+ points out of 180!
- 3. Cooperative Family Mode (All Ages): Everyone plays on the same team! Read Clue 1 aloud and discuss family theories together. If stumped, reveal Clue 2. Great for dinnertime conversations or car rides.

A Step-by-Step Simulated Round

Sample Challenge: Demonstration Character

Before playing the numbered challenges, study this simulated round to see how the progressive deduction works in practice.

Clue 1 — Context & Family Lineage (Worth 3 Points)

> "I was a wealthy Benjamite landowner from the hill country of Ephraim whose family had a history of fierce loyalty, and my physical stature exceeded every other man in Israel from my shoulders upward."

Reader Pause: The Reader stops. The player ponders: A tall Benjamite? Could it be Saul? Or Jonathan? If the player confidently says King Saul, they immediately score 3 Points! If unsure, they pass.

Clue 2 — The Turning Point Event (Worth 2 Points)

> "I departed my home in search of my father Kish's lost donkeys, only to find the prophet Samuel holding a secret flask of olive oil to anoint my head."

Reader Pause: Now the circle narrows dramatically: Kish's lost donkeys and Samuel's flask of oil! If the player answers Saul, they score 2 Points.

Clue 3 — Iconic Unmistakable Moment (Worth 1 Point)

> "I became the very first king of united Israel, but forfeited the kingdom through unlawful sacrifice at Gilgal and spared King Agag of the Amalekites."

The Answer: King Saul (1 Samuel 9:1-15:35). Correct answer on Clue 3 earns 1 Point.
